DEBUTANTE FOR ANNA B

INPECTAL TO THE EVENING WORLD-I MORRIS PARK RACE TRACK, June 5. - As the meeting continues at Morris Park the popularity of this magnificent place and its managedelly attendance will verify. To-day there was an immense throng present, and there is no estimating what the attendance will be if the increase continues at the present ratio. The average attendance since the opening of this beautiful track would have furnished a red-letter-day crowd for any of the large tracks a few years ago.

The card was not as beavy a one as on prerious days so far as the number of starters was concerned, but the quality of the flyers entered in the different events was above the average and made up for what was lacking in

The feature of the card was the fifth race, the Witters Stakes, in which Picknicker, Mon-tans, Bolero and other crack three-year-olds met. The other stable feature was the Denu-tante Stakes for three-year-olds, which brought tanie stakes for three-year-olds, which of old it together a lot of youngaters.

The track was as tast as it was possible to be, and fast time was expected in some of the events.

At promptly 2 o'clock the wires stopped clicking in the telegraph office, and all communication by electricity with the outer world ceased.

The sport began with a six furiong dash down the toboggan side, with Daksyrian a hot favorte and Belwood a close second choice, while Simrock and Blacksurn divided the honors in public opioion for third choice, I was a hot cetting affair from start to finish. When the horse reached the sarring post for the first race, Taylor either got insented or kicked, which delayed the race over thirty minutes. They brought Taylor to the club-house in a oacs. It could not be ascertained if he is se-Leveller, one of the rank outsiners, won the race in a handy manner from the favorite, Delsyrtan. Sequence coit was third.

The second race was not quite such a spirited betting event, though their was considerable money on Vardee, who was the favorite. Joe Courtney and Vivid ranged equal second choice with Kern, Atlantic and Norwood at long odds.

For the Debutante Stakes at the inflorest twelve youngsters faced the atariers. It was not a very brisk beiting race, as there is too much of an und rtainly about two-year-olds.

THE TURF.

A Bad Day for the Favorites at Morris Park Races.

LUCKY TIP ON ESQUIMAU.

Must Wait Till Fall.

The racing at Morris Park yesterday was highly interesting, although the favorites, with he exception of La Tosca in the first event, went down with a dull, sickening thud. The surprise of the day was in the Gallard Stakes, where Morris's St. Florian suf-fered her first defeat, and that at the hands of Vestibule, of the Rancocas Stable, by Emperor, out of Vestella. There was a wild plunge on St. Fiorian after the Morris stable had declared to win with her, and bet-ters made a mad rush for any bookmaker that marked up anywhere near even money. And they were a sad lot of plungers when they saw Vestibule come through and win easily. Again, in the last race, there was heavy om his brother, William F. Sheehan, Speaker the Assembly, saying that the report that he quiet as a very sure thing, and the knowing ones got aboard; but at one time it looked as if the bookies had their money. Garrison got away badly and remained in the rear to the last quarter, when he humped his back and came through. The favorite did not run kindly at the finish, and Siryke, the Cutten burg favorite, secured the place.
